MFC employee who found missing person called 'hometown hero'

From Press Reports

Mississippi Forestry Commission employee David Morelan of Eupora is a hometown hero.

On April 6, he was assisting in a search party effort for a person who had been missing since the previous Sunday, April 2.

Morelan was off work, taking a few hours of personal time, but his firefighting instincts kicked in when he saw smoke from a wildfire.

"I saw some smoke and had to call it in," he said. "We followed the smoke and found the missing person nearby."

Morelan notified the rest of the search party, and the missing person was reunited with his loved ones. After that, Morelan went home to pick up his wildland firefighting equipment, returned to the scene and spent the next four hours working with

Citywide smokefree ordinance proposed

By Russell Hood
The Webster Progress-Times

A proposed smokefree ordinance for Eupora is under consideration by the Board of Aldermen.

Keetha Mosley, director of the Mississippi Tobacco-Free Coalition of Choctaw, Montgomery and Webster Counties, presented a model ordinance prohibiting smoking in all workplaces and public places (100 percent smokefree) to the board April 3.

Mosley said the city could decide how many feet from doorways to prohibit smoking, but 15-25 feet is recommended, according to the ordinance. It would not prohibit smoking in private
